OREGON'S LEADING VALUE POINTS

Blue Pirate

Blue birds would steal hazelnuts from the delivery trucks at the Westnut hazelnut factory in Dundee, Oregon and became known as “Blue Pirates”. Our Pinot Noir is produced at this renovated historical building, now called “12th and Maple Wine Company” and is also dedicated to the bluebird that once pirated the hazelnuts – The Blue Pirate.

In the summer of 2005 he moved to head-up production at 12th & Maple Wine Company, a 1700-ton capacity, state-of-the-art custom crush facility in Dundee, Oregon. There he makes wine for several clients along with crafting Battle Creek Vineyards Pinot Noir and Blue Pirate Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris.
